

oppose hi 6355 because as Americans we are INNOCENT until proven guilty. Removing one's rights prior is unconstitutional. These "red flag" laws are notoriously overused, and the party that initiates the calls are never prosecuted when this happens. While I understand there are instances where a party having access to a firearm could be dangerous, stripping the rights of many will not help. Law breakers will break the laws!

Guthrie Dinda

Lebanon

Sent from my iPad